2008 ANIMARITIME

Bringing the Maritimes five years of Anime and Gaming

Welcome To: ANIMARITIME

This year of preparation has really paid off. We have a great lineup of guests, we sold out our room block in the hotel, we've put together a fantastic art book, and we get to celebrate our 5th year with all of you! We hope that you have the best time yet at this year's convention.

Staff have worked especially hard to provide you with the best of the best, so please don't hesitate to approach them to let them know what you think about this year.

We hope that you have a great time at the convention, and thanks for attending Animaritime 2008!

Convention Rules & Policies

In order to maintain a fun and safe atmosphere during the entirety of the convention, we ask that you please read and follow the rules and policies set forth here. If you have any questions regarding what is listed here, please direct them to convention staff. Thank you.

Convention Rules of Conduct

1. Ignorance is not a defence in regards to the law or the convention. This booklet has all the information you will need.
2. All children under the age of 13 must be accompanied by an adult at all times. An adult must be present with the child at the time of registration. Convention staff are not babysitters and are not responsible for unsupervised children.
3. Animaritime has a zero tolerance policy for violence and/or sexual harassment. Failure to comply with this rule will result in an immediate ban from the convention.
4. Controlled substances, alcohol, and firearms are strictly prohibited from the convention site. There is no smoking inside the convention centre or hotel, but is permitted outside at the designated locations.
5. Animaritime is not responsible for your lost or stolen items. Do not leave valuables unattended.
6. Be respectful of the convention staff, attendees, and building. Disruptive behaviour will not be tolerated.
7. Due to the size of convention event rooms, some events may require attendees to wait in line prior to admittance to the event and may result in a cap on the number of people that can attend. Please listen to and follow staff instructions in order to ensure quick and effective seating. Animaritime staff will do their best to seat everyone interested in an event, however some people may be turned away if the room's limit is met.
8. Please do not loiter around the registration and information desks. There needs to be a clear area around both so they can operate properly and efficiently.

Registration Policies

1. Pre-registration fees are non-refundable. Registration and badges may not be resold.
2. Upon arrival at the convention, you will be asked to sign for your badge. By signing for your badge, you are agreeing to abide by the convention rules and policies.
3. ID will be required to pick-up pre-registered badges (driver's license, school id, passport, etc). Attendees without ID may pick up their badges if accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. Any attendee wishing to attend 18+ events will be required to present ID at time of registration and again as entering the event. Attendees not 18 by the time their ID is checked by staff will not be allowed at the 18+ events.
4. Badges identify you as part of the convention, and must be worn and kept visible at all times. Lost or stolen badges should be reported to convention staff immediately.
5. Any individual found to have forged their badge, or to have presented a fake ID will immediately have their convention privileges revoked and will be removed from the convention site.
6. Animaritime reserves the right to revoke your convention privileges and badge and to remove you from the convention site at any time. No refunds will be given in this event.

Costume Policies

1. Animaritime is a family environment. Because of this, we ask that you ensure that no inappropriate body parts may become visible while at the convention.
2. We require that you wear tights/hose under any bottoms that may create a risk of exposure (examples include, but are not limited to, short booty shorts, miniskirts, any bottoms with similar or less coverage than standard women's underwear). Guys who plan on wearing tight or form fitting bottoms should wear a dance belt or another garment that performs the same function.
3. Bikini or bra style tops are allowable provided that they provide adequate coverage and there is no perceived risk of exposure.
4. Staff reserves the right to ask anyone to cover up if they feel that the level or potential for exposure is unacceptable. Staff will be happy to give suggestions regarding how to make a costume appropriate. Feel free to ask beforehand if you are concerned.
5. Large/bulky costumes, or costumes that restrict the wearer's vision must be accompanied by an unencumbered escort.

6. Garments that may be offensive or cause disruption are not acceptable. Wearers will either be asked to cover up, remove the offensive materials or be removed from the convention.

7. Any props or weapons must conform to the Weapons Policy, be checked by Secure Operations, and be peacebonded. Offenders will either have their prop confiscated or their convention privileges revoked at the discretion of Secure Operations.

8. Offenders of the costume policies will be asked to change. Repeat offenders may have their convention privileges revoked and be removed from the convention.

Weapons Policy

1. No real weapons will be permitted at Animaritime. This includes, but is not limited to:

- * Handguns, shotguns, rifles, and other real guns.
- * BB guns, paint ball guns, high powered water guns, etc.
- * Bladed weapons such as swords, knives, switchblades, etc.
- * Nunchucks, Tonfas, and other restricted Martial Art weapons.
- * Law enforcement weapons such as mace, tazers, and batons.
- * Any other weapon that is prohibited by applicable Canadian Laws.

Bows and crossbows are permitted, however any projectile designed to be shot from a bow or crossbow, such as arrows, bolts, etc. are prohibited.

2. No chemicals or explosives are permitted at Animaritime, including but not limited to fireworks, sparklers, and smoke powder.

3. Wooden weapons are allowed, including walking sticks, staffs, and bokken. Non-realistic and self-made weaponry is allowed so long as it will not pose harm to other convention attendees. Weapon edges should be dull or blunt, and they should be able to be safely secured to the individual.

4. All weapons must be approved and "peace bonded" by Secure Operations. Peace bonding will not harm or damage the weapon in any way. The marker must stay visible at all times, and is in no way to be obscured, moved, or removed from the weapon.

5. Owners of weapons must also be briefed on proper weapon handling. Badges will be marked, and only individuals with marked badges will be allowed to handle weapons. If owners do not have their badges marked, they will not be allowed to carry or handle a weapon for the duration of the convention.

6. Any and all kinds of horseplay with weapons will not be tolerated! All weapons must be securely fastened to the owner so that other attendees will not be at risk to be struck or otherwise come in physical contact with the weapon.

7. Weapons are not to be drawn or wielded in large or crowded public areas. Owners found to be inappropriately handling their weapons will have their weapons confiscated by Secure Operations, only to be returned at the conclusion of the convention, and the owner may be subject to further action by Secure Operations.

8. Large props will be subject to the same guidelines as those for weapons. Props that are found to be too large or heavy to be safely carried during the convention will be asked to be returned to the owner's car or hotel room, or held by Secure Operations.

9. Individuals wishing to use a restricted prop during the course of the Masquerade or during a photoshoot will be asked to demonstrate the intended use of the prop to both Secure Operations and the Masquerade Coordinator. Upon approval of the prop's use, Secure Operations will hold the prop until the time of the Masquerade and/or Photoshoot and will see to its safe delivery to and from the event.

10. Secure Operations Officers reserve the right to inspect any attendees' weapon/prop, peace bond, or convention badge at any time. Failure to adhere to any above guidelines may result in, but is not limited to, the following actions:

- * Confiscation of the weapon or prop for the duration of the convention.
- * Immediate loss of the privilege to carry a weapon or prop.
- * Removal from Animaritime and the convention site without a refund.

11. Any act of extreme negligence or public endangerment may result in criminal prosecution beyond the control or responsibility of Animaritime. Please remember that a large number of individuals in the community are unaware of the convention and its events, and may act in the extreme if they feel unsafe or threatened. Animaritime strongly suggests that individuals refrain from leaving the convention site with weapons or props.

12. The decisions of Secure Operations are final and will be strictly enforced to ensure the safety of all convention attendees and the safe environment of Animaritime.

Thank you for your cooperation in making Animaritime a safe place. And please remember to Have Fun!

Animaritime 2008 Guests

Svetlana Chmakova - Svetlana was born and raised Russian, and came to Canada at the tender age of 16. She finished high school here, then graduated Sheridan College with a three-year Classical Animation Diploma and is currently a freelance artist, as well as a fledging North-American equivalent of a manga-ka. She has been in a love-hate relationship with comics and manga for several years now because she is too weak to break it off.

Svetlana has drawn for how-to-draw-manga books, RPG manuals, toy designs, animation, book covers and a bunch of online comics. She is most famous for her series DramaCon, and will be doing a book signing this year at Animaritime.

K.V. Johansen - K.V. Johansen is the author of a number of books, including the "Torrie Quests" series of children's novels, the "Pippin and Mabel" picture books, and other fantasy and science fiction for children and teens. She is also the author of Quests and Kingdoms: A Grown-Up's Guide to Children's Fantasy Literature, a history of and guide to children's fantasy which was shortlisted for the 2006 Harvey Darton Award in the UK.

Although her academic background is in Medieval Studies, she held the 2001 Eileen Wallace Research Fellowship in Children's Literature from the Wallace Collection at UNB and received the 2004 Frances E. Russell Award for research into children's literature from IBBY Canada.

Torrie and the Pirate-Queen was a nominated title for both the 2006 Silver Birch and the Diamond Willow Awards, and won the 2006 Lilla Sterling Award.

Jones - Jones is the artist and writer of "Vampirates", a webcomic running since March 2005 that involves vampires, pirates, folk songs, the Newfoundland ferry, and the mishaps that occur when these things that shouldn't be brought together are brought together. Since starting the comic, she has been participating in the Artist Alleys of Anime North and Animaritime, as well as doing academic research on webcomics in her spare time. Her skillset includes drawing, procrastinating, getting sick at cons, and sleeping. She was recently uprooted from her Nova Scotia home to work on an MA in Ontario, and is excited to be heading back east for the con.

Nicole Letersky - Nicole's been active in the cosplay world for many years and has done work at a few Conventions around north America. Last year she was a Guest/Panelist/ Judge at Animethon, AnimeEvolution and AiKon and was asked to be the Mascot at Sakura Con in Seattle. She was a guest down at a LARP Medieval fighting event in Flordia last year and she was flown down to be International Judge For the LARPIES (Live action Roll Play Awards..like the Oscars but for nerds) in 2006 in Los Angeles. She runs a few classes to do with sewing and wig work locally, and is currently working on the costumes for a Star Wars Fan film being shot hopefully early this year. She will be running several cosplay panels at Animaritime as well as being a guest judge in this years masquerade.
